

Humanities Club
Innovation Grant Project Details

Project Title: Understanding Disney Gender Roles and Stereotypes Through a Generational Lens

Start date of the project:

Fall 2021

End date of the project:

Ongoing – We are finalizing the paper this semester and the newest club members are beginning work on a new topic.

Proposed budget of the project:

We anticipated the expenses to total an amount of approximately $20,000.

Actual cost of the project:

We were able to take a total of 12 individuals (10 students and 2 sponsors) for the amount of $15,000.

Full project results summary:

Since this is ongoing, this information is unavailable at this time. However, we do have some noteworthy achievements that came from this project:

- Students presented at the 2022 Southeastern Women’s Studies Association (SEWSA) Conference in the spring of 2022. (Did present)
- Students were invited for oral presentation to present at the ICGHGR 2022: XVI International Conference on Gender History and Gender Roles in Tokyo, Japan on October 06-07, 2022. (did not present)
- Students were invited for oral presentation to the 10th edition of the International Conference on Research in Behavioral and Social Sciences – ICRBS 2022 in Amsterdam, Netherlands on November 18-20, 2022. (did not present)
- Students presented in oral presentation for at the 4th World Conference on Social Sciences Studies (3SCONF) in Paris, France. (DID present)
- Students were invited to present at the 71st Annual Conference of ANTI-RACIST EDUCATION IN LATIN AMERICA: PERSPECTIVES ON STATE AND GRASSROOTS PROJECTS at Florida State University. Dr. Sindy Chapa, Director of the Hispanic Marketing Center at Florida State University, personally invited us after our presentation in Paris. (did not present)